2003 Journal

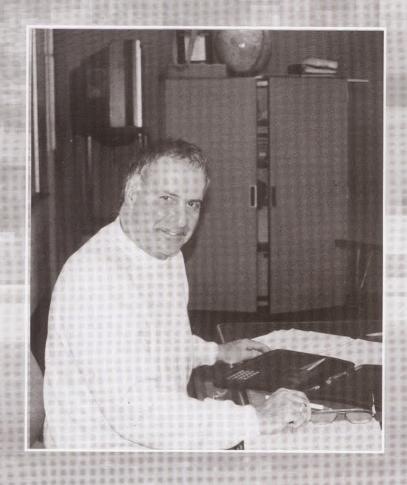

Class of 2003,

Finally, senior year is over! Now you can look back on the past four years and remember all the fun, exciting, challenging, and dreadful days. The yearbook staff has put a lot of time and effort into this lasting collection of memories. We made every effort to capture the most memorable times. When looking back in twenty years we hope you will still treasure and remember our times together at Taunton High. Enjoy your Journal and best of luck in the future!

If I Could Wish for Just One Thing ...

To date Nick Hexum.

For nothing. I live my life a day at a time with no regrets.

To be truly happy.

A million wishes.

For everyone to accept others for who they are.

To be successful and enjoy life.

To stay in Taunton High School.

More time.

To live forever.

To never lose anyone I love or care about.

That everyone stopped caring about materialistic things.

A half way decent high school football coach.

To be surrounded by my friends forever.

That my daughter grows up happy and healthy.

To fulfill all my dreams.

To have a mansion and lots of hot cars.

To be someone else for a day.

To have super powers.

To live life to the fullest.

Good health.

To be the best at what I do.

No more drama.

To live life with no worries.

To always be able to make people laugh.

To go through life with a smile on my face.

For all my wishes to come true.

The drummers could keep time.

For people to get what they deserve.

To become famous.

True love.

A big comfy bed.

A date with Jay-Z.

To be stuck on an island with hundreds of good looking men.

To turn back time.

To get out of Taunton.

To be able to fly.

To be invisible.

To be a little bit taller.

To meet Michael Jackson.

No more rules.

The perfect man.

For everyone to see the world through my eyes.

A big bottle of Yoo-Hoo.

To win a billion dollars.

To travel to every corner of the Earth.

My"94" Integra.

For life not to pass by too fast.

A talent that no one else has.
